*The 18th Day of December
in the year of President
Gary Bolton 2015-2016*

Dr. David Pinkall is hosting today's program

Presenter: Oliver Drake, Midland University; Mark Williams, Fremont High School; and Doug Moore, Archbishop Bergan High School

Coach Drake comes to Midland University after having guided Ashford University to the NAIA DII National Championship Tournament in three of his five years as head coach, including an appearance in the Round of 16 in this year's tournament. Drake, the 2013-14 Association of Independent Institutions (A.I.I.) Coach of the year, posted a 108-55 overall record in his five seasons at Ashford.

Mark Williams starts his 13th year as the Boys Head Basketball Coach for the Fremont Tigers after being a former player for Fremont and helping lead the Tigers to the State semi-finals in 1985. Mark has helped lead the Tigers to double digit season win totals in five of the past six seasons. The Tigers narrowly missed the State Tournament in 2013 when they lost by five to eventual state champion Bellevue West on their home floor. Mark has the Tigers off to a good start at 4-0 this season. They will play tonight at Lincoln High and will host Kearney Saturday night.

Doug Moore is in his second year at Bergan, but his first year of sharing the head basketball coaching duties with Chris Rainforth. He is also the assistant football coach at Bergan. Doug's previous experience is extensive, having coached football, basketball and track at Norfolk Catholic for 10 years.
